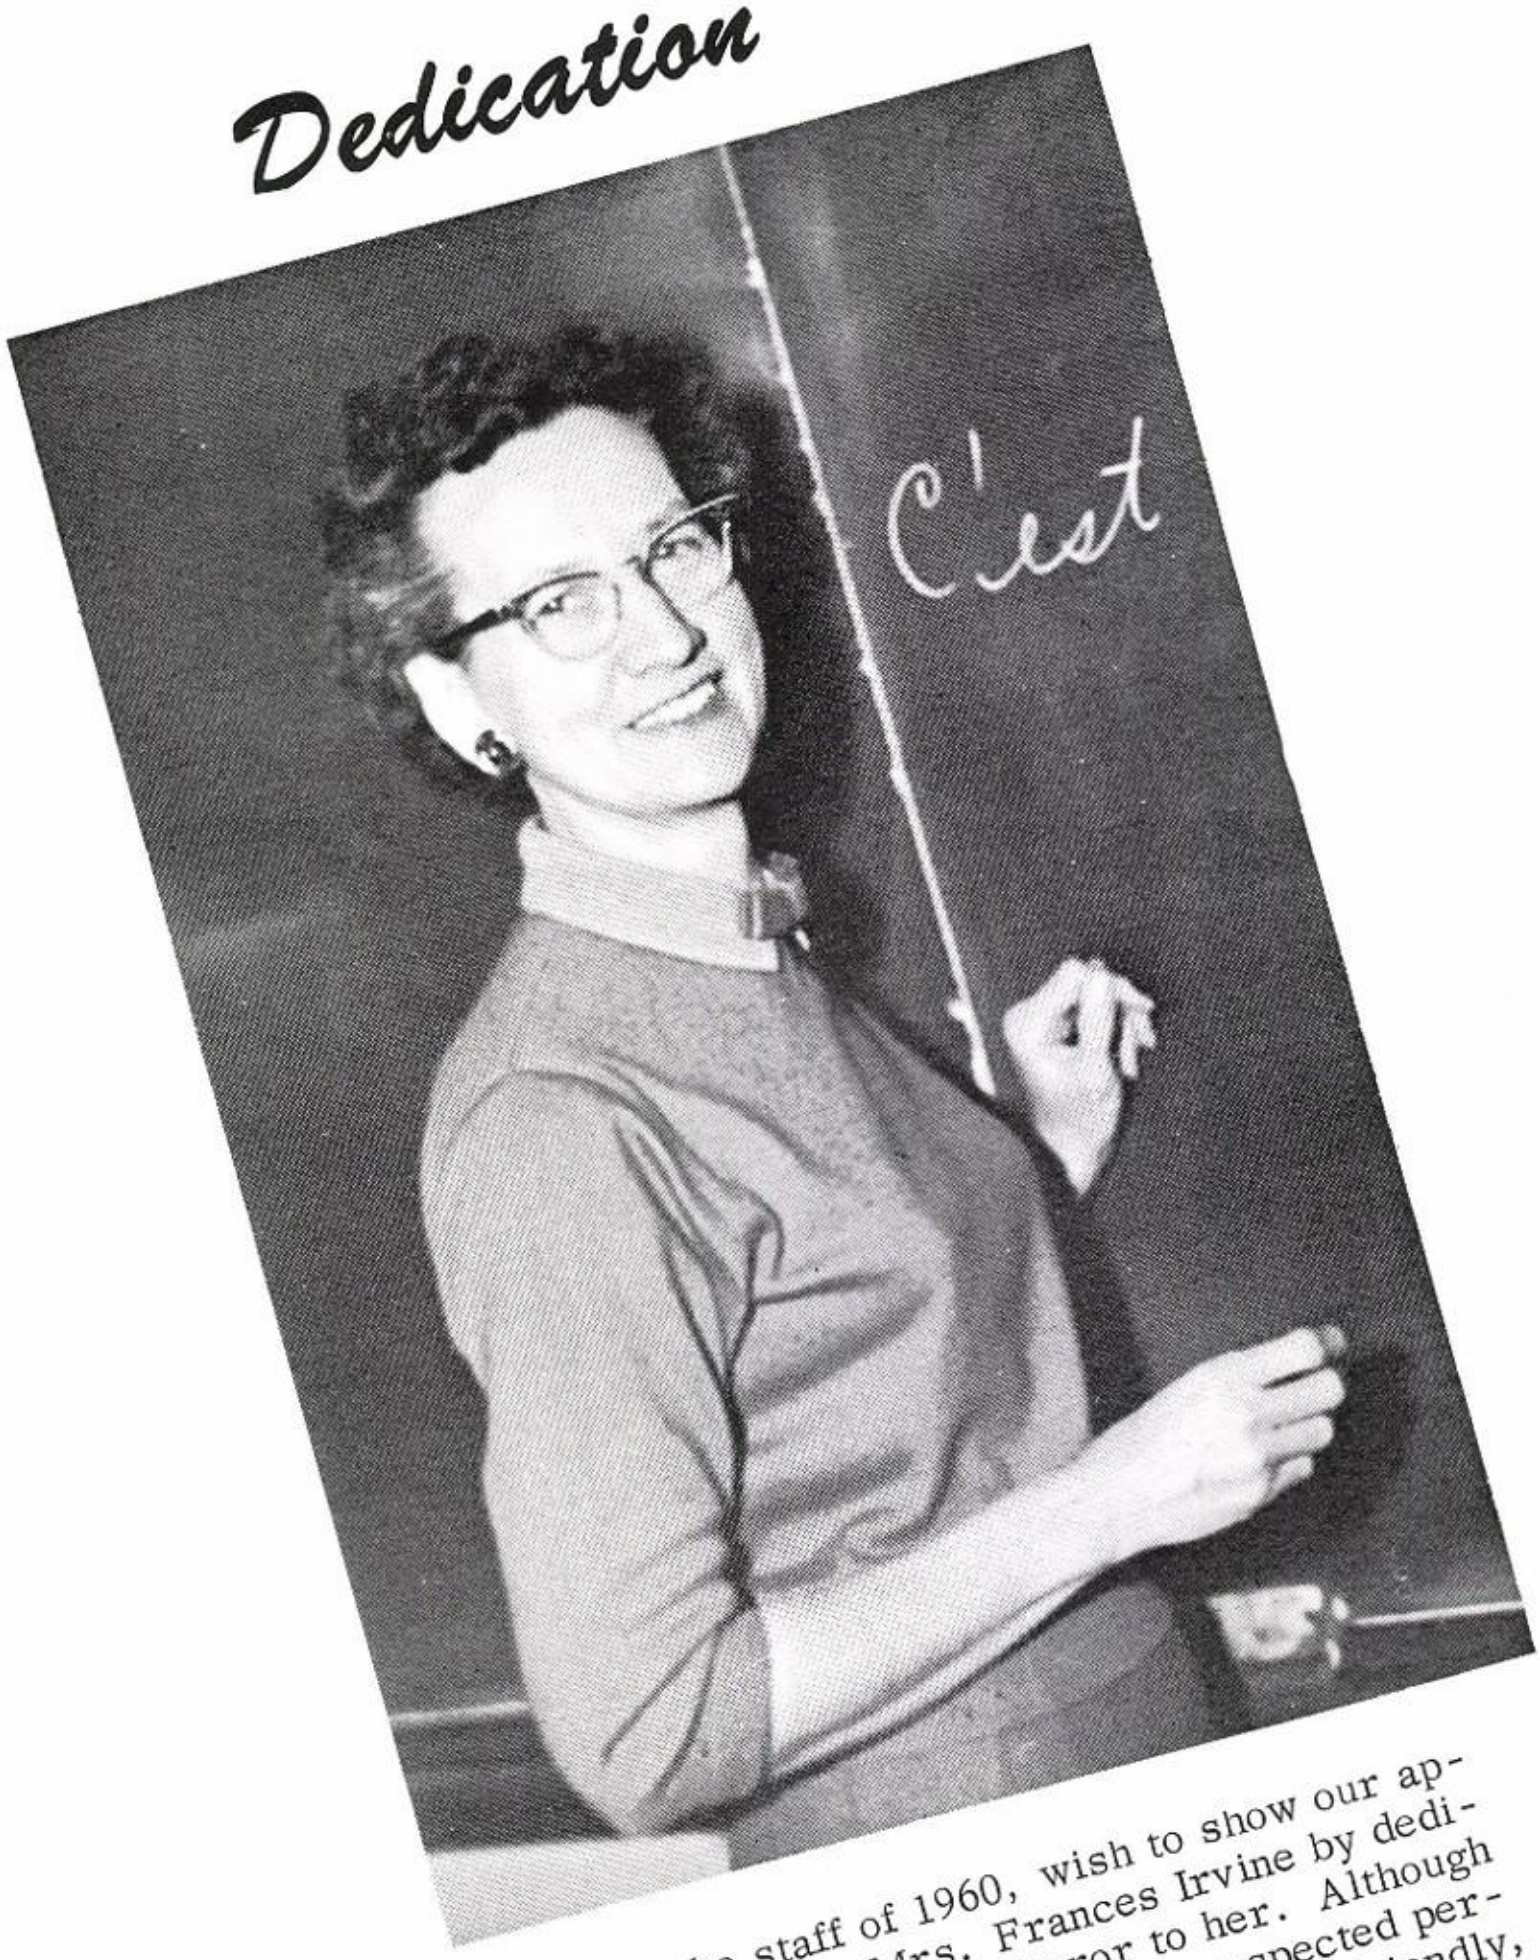
Dedication



We, the staff of 1960, wish to show our appreciation to Mrs. Frances Irvine by dedication of our 1960 Mirror to her. Although she is one of the most highly respected persons in school, she is also cheerful, friendly, and helpful to all.

Service Staff

The smooth operation of our school depends greatly on the way these folks perform their duties.

Poor downtrodden Henry! No wonder, look who he has in his hair--WOMEN!!

Junior Play

There's nothing startling or even unusual about the name Ernest--except to one Henry Gilcrest. You see, just the name sends Henry into shock. It all started when Henry's boss fired him and his girl friend threw him overboard and Aunt Ethel ordered him from her boarding house because of no rent money. Well, poor homeless, girl-less and jobless Henry, spending the night in a park, meets one, Mr. Bumpus. He pours out his troubles to Mr. Bumpus, who tells him life has dealt him a miserable blow and he has a friend named Ernest who, for only $17.83, gets poor downtrodden souls like Henry out of their misery. So Henry, in his pitiful, forlorn condition, pays the money, goes back home and finds (1) Aunt Ethel is ready to forgive him, (2) his girl wants another chance, (3) his boss has given him a raise, (4) life was never happier and better and--BOING--he remembers he's paid his last cent to someone named Ernest to get him out of this world. Needless to say, he's really in misery now, especially when virtually everyone he encounters is named Ernest.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1960, being of unsound mind, do hereby will and bequeath the following items to our former schoolmates.

I, Kenneth Alleman, wish to bestow the treasures of my P.E. talents to my amiable successor, Danny Vargochik.

I, Sherin Alleman, will my short straight blond hair to Diane Clayburn.

I, Linda Bartolt, will my ability to get good grades in Chemistry (without studying) to Janice Burgess.

I, Ted Bayler, will my height to Jerry Skinner.

I, Jim Brewer, will to Rich Ploch the ability to be a big business man and run a factory.

I, Don Cabal, will my ability to smoke to Kent Zimmerman.

I, Betty Clark, will my position in ensemble to Rhoda Nicholson.

I, Phillip Duffell, will my ability to mess around with customizing and never accomplish it to Ray Smith.

I, Craig Fetzer, will my ability to act as a minister to Jim Sons.

I, Don Fiedler, will my "D.A." haircut to Dennis Killen.

I, Larry Fleming, will my ability to hit home runs to Dick Minick.

I, Mike Folty, will my ability to stay away from the girls to Jerry Frangenberg.

I, Eleanor Frederick, will my ability to hit a volley ball with both hands to Sharon Schmitt.

I, Sharon Gehm, will my ability to drive through fences without getting hurt to Janet Farneti in hopes that she drives better than I did.

I, Rita Huss, will to Sandy Siemers my ability to become attracted to a "Jerry."

I, Jerry Johnson, will to Joe Smith my ability to have a car at any time I like.

I, Bill Keith, will my love for math to Larry Quade.

I, Wilbur McLaughlin, will my ability to "goof off" to Sam Calkins.

I, Martha Mareta, will my ability in Shorthand to Olivia Frangenberg in hopes she does better than I.

I, Tom Miller, will my ability to win a sure bet to Greg Fritz.

I, Ken Mortenson, will my orneriness to Sharon Zimmerman in hopes that she will improve it.

I, Louise Mortenson, will my love for P.E. to Carol Siemers.

I, Anita Ploch, will my unusually quiet manner to Sandy McLaughlin.

I, Marilyn Redenius, will my long hair to Ruth Dart.

I, Duane Rose, will my ability to get better grades in English IV to Fred Topolski.

I, Donna Schafer, will five inches of my height to Karen Cabal.

I, Janice Shawback, will my position on the annual staff to Judy Strack.

I, Roger Siemers, will my ability to grow a beard to Duane Dauber.

I, Deane Vogel, will my ability to stay out of trouble to Katy Cooper.

I, Evelyn Watson, will my interest in "a Rog" to Susie Gass.

I, Roberta Wiertz, will my "shoo-shoes" to Rosemary Bernadoni so she can have a pony-tail without long hair.

We, the class of 1960, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament and do here unto set our seal.

THE SENIOR CLASS

OF 1960

Class Prophecy

This is the night of May 29, 2068. It should be our class' 100th reunion, but none of the other class members were fortunate enough to receive the opportunity of our new scientific discovery, "youth serum."

Besides not having our class present, the night is gloomy, morbid, and lonely. The moon is even hiding behind a cloud which makes it seem even lonelier.

We are 118 years old now, and while reminising about our graduation, we agreed to turn to the files and look up what had happened to our classmates.

As we looked into our first file I read:

SHARON GEHM - poor soul! She had been a warden in an international mental institution. It's not too surprising how she met her fate, considering that only violent, hopeless cases were sent there.

It began to look quite interesting so we continued:

DEANE VOGEL - He was so young, only 84, but successful in his youth. He held position of Ambassador to Camp Kukamonga. He got caught between the Marines and Boy Scouts.

BILLY KEITH - We are so proud to think we had known him, and shocked that he had been crushed by his own self-designed and self-built mechanical man. He had been a second Einstein.

DONNA SCHAFER - She drove a catapillar and supposedly pushed a wrong button. It's a shame she had to be standing in front of it.

We observed by looking further:

DONALD FIEDLER - Best race driver of all time. He won the 500 mile Indiana race for 40 years in succession. Fool, it's too bad he could drive so well, but couldn't walk across a street on a red light.

DUANE ROSE - We even swoon ourselves! He was known as Ricky Rose; the ginchiest disc jockey of the 20th and 21st centuries. He couldn't get away from the girls. Rick was found half-in, half-out, of a garbage can after a suicidal jump of 68 floors.

LARRY FLEMING - He was a door-to-door perfume salesman, and was "silenced" by a jealous husband.

ROGER SIEMERS - Wouldn't you know it! World Tiddly-Wink Champion. He always was a pretty good loser; but after an important game when he found his opponent cheating, he gunned him down and was sent to the chair.

CRAIG FETZER - Such a clean, neat boy in school. Why was he a grease-monkey? We'll never know. He can't tell us now.

RITA HUSS - Grown tired of the sweet, gentle boys of our home town, she moved into Canada as a cook for a lumber camp. She had chased her man almost to the top of the tree when--some joker cut it down.

MARILYN REDENIUS - A surprising girl! She wound up polishing candlesticks for Liberace's grandson. Remember her long hair? Well, it caught on fire.

KENNY MORTENSON - He had been a male pin-up for Hercules Inc. But, he had no backbone. He did not survive the ordeal after they discovered him without his shoulder pads.

TOM MILLER - Very good at his job, Tom was a manicurist for Cal Apone. Real good--he got bumped off.

WILBUR McLAUGHLIN - Because of his admiration for the T.C.H.S. teachers, he took up teaching Steno. He was trampled during a school riot.

JERRY JOHNSON - He had claim to a different fame. Gerald Johnston, President of the United States Organized Beatniks. Their most important belief was "not working." Starvation overtook him.

MIKE FOLTY - Quiet Mike became the most sought after "gigolo" in the loop. One night he drew the wrong dame.

It's my turn now.

BETTY CLARK - She was star of her own T.V. show, "The Lone Stranger and Pronto." One of the sand bags fell on her during rehearsal.

KENNY ALLEMAN - His picture was in the paper for swimming the English Channel. Just three days afterwards the radio blared out that he had drowned in his backyard wading pool.

PHILIP DUFFELL - Phil lived a hermit's life. Loneliness overcame him.

LINDA BARTOLT - She replaced Ward Bond on Wagon Train, fell in love with her scouter and lived happily until the land was all filled and there was no more need for them.

JIM BREWER - A new Tarzan. He tried so hard, but he lacked experience and was strangled by a vine while flying through the air.

ELEANOR FREDERICK - She was a Soviet Spy and got sent to the moon.

TED BAYLER - Ted held position of editor of "Mad Magazine." He finally went mad.

DON CABAL and MARTHA MARETA, we see, were the male and female leads in the Ice Follies. While performing a Spectacular at Starved Rock, they glided off "lovers' leap."

JAN SHAWBACK - Her occupation was fitting. Jan was the model wife to the model husband, the model mother of the model children, in the model home of the model town. She couldn't take it any longer.

ANITA PLOCH - Big game hunting was her hobby. By accident she shot a baby rhino and made the mother rhino angry.

ROBERTA WIERTZ - Birdie designed faces for a famous plastic surgeon. Oops! Wrong face on right face!!!

LOUISE MORTENSON - She was unanimously voted Miss America. Just too attractive for her own good.

It was getting late when finished, so we locked up the files, swept the floor, and with a backward glance we swung the big door shut and stumbled our way home. I guess we forgot to explain. You see, we are the janitors of the National Morgue.
